KOLAR DISTRICT.

NOTIFICATION.

The 19th August 1874.

The Deputy Commissioner and District Magistrate of Kolar directs attention to the terms of a Notification of the Madras Government, published in the Fort St. George Gazette, under date 14th April 1871, which require that fire-arms and parts of fire-arms, and gun-powder and other ammunition or Military Stores as described in Section 22 of Act XXXI of 1860, shall, if imported into this Province, (otherwise than in reasonable quantities for private use) be covered by a pass, which, in the case of places situated in Districts adjoining this Province, may be granted by the Magistrate of such District, and in the case of Madras or other towns not belonging to frontier Districts, may be granted by the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras.

2. The order of the Madras Government further requires that the articles covered by the pass shall be taken direct to the place of destination mentioned in the pass, without being sold, or made use of at any intermediate place; and that the person in charge of the articles shall deliver the pass to the Office of the Magistrate of the District within 6 days after arrival at such destination.

The Police have been directed to see that these requirements are in all cases duly fulfilled.

The conditions of the sale are as follows:—

1. The highest bidder shall be the purchaser, but the Government reserves to itself the right of buying in, if unusually low prices are offered.

2. Should any disputes arise, during the sale, regarding bids made for an animal or animals, the lot shall be put up again and re-sold.

3. Each purchaser shall immediately after an animal or animals have been knocked down to him, sign his name opposite the number and description of the elephant bought by him, in a book provided for the purpose. Such signature shall be held as an admission on his part of having bought such an animal.

4. Immediately after the sale, each purchaser will be furnished with a memo shewing the total amount due by him, and shall pay at once into the nearest Government Treasury the total amount, if directed to do so by the Officer conducting the sale, and if not, 25 per cent of such amount as a deposit before the close of the 2nd day from the date of sale, and the whole amount before the close of the 3rd day; failing which, the Officer conducting the sale shall be at liberty to sell to other individuals all or any of the elephants purchased by such defaulter who shall not only forfeit his deposit, but also bear any loss, and shall not participate in any profit that may arise.

5. Receipts for deposit money and the price of elephants will be granted by the Treasury Officer immediately on payment, and must be presented to the Officer in charge of elephants on the evening of the 2nd and 3rd days respectively, or earlier when possible.

6. As soon as an elephant or a lot of elephants is knocked down to the highest bidder, the responsibility of the Government with regard to them ceases, but the purchaser will not be allowed to remove the animals until the payment of the full amount as laid down in para 4.

The Hymns of the Rig-Veda, in the Sambhita and Pada Text, by Professor F. Max Müller, M. A., in two Volumes.—Price, Rs. 24; packing and postage, Re. 1—12.

* *The Rig-Veda, the oldest book of Indian literature, has very properly been made one of the principal class-books for those who study Sanskrit in the Schools and Colleges in India, and though at present a scholar-like knowledge of the Vedic hymns is in the examinations required of the more advanced students only, yet, as soon as editions, translations, grammars and dictionaries shall have rendered the study of these ancient documents more accessible, I doubt not that the time will come when no one in India will call himself a Sanskrit scholar, who cannot construe the hymns of the ancient Rishis of his country.—Extract from Preface.
